Girdhar J Gyani PhD FIE MCSI is the Director General of Association of Healthcare Providers - India (AHPI) with over five decades of experience in administration, research, and quality. He is widely recognized as the founder of healthcare quality in India. During his tenure as Secretary General of the Quality Council of India, Dr Gyani played a pivotal role in the creation of National Accreditation Board for Hospitals and Healthcare Providers (NABH). He also pioneered quality accreditation in varied disciplines such as public services, school education, environment, food safety and the manufacturing sector. SME World Magazine in the cover story of its June 2012 issue, described Dr Gyani as the "Quality Man of India."

Alexander Thomas MS Orth M Phil PGDMLE President of AHPI, President of the Association of National Board Accredited Institutions (ANBAI), and Founder-President (2012-2017) and Patron of the Consortium of Accredited Healthcare Organizations (CAHO), has effected far-reaching policy changes within the healthcare landscape. He led the expert group on medical education for the National Education Policy 2019 headed by Dr Kasturirangan, created national coalitions [with the Indian Medical Association (IMA)], the think tank on health (with NLSIU), and liaised between government and health stakeholders during the COVID-19 pandemic. He has served on committees of the Union Health Ministry, NABH, HSSC, CII, FICCI, UNESCO, PHFI, and NBE. He has several publications to his credit, including Communicate. Care. Cure. A Guide to Healthcare Communication, India's first book on the subject.
